

The image is a teal-tinted architectural rendering of a modern building complex. The buildings feature a mix of glass facades and solid panels, with several balconies and a prominent external staircase. People are depicted walking on the ground level, and a car is visible on the left. The overall scene is set in an urban environment with trees and other buildings in the background.

Columbiaquartier - Tempelhofer Feld 2009 – GRAFT 1.Rang

The image is a detailed architectural site plan for the Columbiaquartier in Tempelhof, Berlin. It features a large, semi-circular stadium with a grey roof and a light-colored interior, situated on the left side. To the right of the stadium, there is a large green area with a winding path and several rectangular plots, some of which are highlighted in white and green, indicating planned development. The surrounding area is filled with a grid of streets and building footprints, representing the existing urban fabric. The text 'PHASE II schrittweise vorgehen' is overlaid on the right side of the plan.
